

"The Charm of Woodland Wildflowers" by Nancy Irons
Illinois Dunesland's June 20 Noon Luncheon
Illinois Beach State Park Resort

Nancy Irons was raised in a house set back in the woods and learned to love nature from her mother. She studied Botany at the University of Wisconsin in Madison with an emphasis on ecology and the environment. She has been a life-long nature enthusiast and educator.

For nearly 20 years, Nancy and her mother have been leading spring wildflower walks. Her presentation, "The Charm of Woodland Wildflowers," will explore what makes these spring ephemerals such treasures. The slide show will include a visual tour of these wildflowers with discussions on their adaptations and unique characteristics. Join us for a Who's Who tour of these delicate beauties!

Bring your walking shoes for an optional nature walk after the presentation!
