

Please Come to the April 21, 2007 Meeting of the Illinois Dunesland Preservation Society

BACKYARD BIRDING IN YOUR OWN NEIGHBORHOOD!

Our April 21 speaker is Bette Rotert of Vernon Hills. She will share her expertise and insights about bird-watching, using her highly honed storytelling skills. Come share her delight in the natural world around us and sharpen your own skills and interests in birding.

Bette has an advanced art degree and is the religious education director of North Shore Unitarian Church. She has owned knit shops and started a knitting ministry that knits lap robes and shawls for cancer patients. The ministry also knits premie sets for Lutheran General Hospital for preemies under two pounds. Bette has also owned an antique shop and is an avid antique hound.

Join us and be delighted by the tales and insights of this truly fascinating Renaissance woman! Prepare to be entertained and educated!
